Program Description

The Principal Partnership Project will host the 8th annual EdCamp on Wednesday, January 17, 2024. EdCamp is open to principals, assistant principals, and other school leaders. Last year over 300 principals and school leaders participated in this professional learning event. EdCamp is 100% FREE and EILA credit is available. Based on feedback, EdCamp will be a virtual event again this year. While we love in-person events, the virtual format allows a LOT of flexibility to school leaders across the state and has been highly successful these last three years.

Objectives of Program

P3 EdCamp is a conference for principals and other school leaders. The 6-hour conference will include keynote speakers and over 50 breakout sessions offered by school principals, KDE experts, leaders from the eight cooperatives, and school district leaders. These sessions will address real world application of Instructional Leadership, Behavior Management and PBIS, RTI Intervention Strategies and MTSS System Implementation, Family Engagement, School Safety, Technology, and other topics around school leadership.
