Program Description

Dear Educators, We're thrilled to welcome Tectonic Theater Project to lead our 15th annual Teachers Institute in a day of Moment Work training. Moment Work is Tectonic Theater Project's collaborative method for devising theater that uses every available element of stagecraft – sound, lights, space, text, costumes, and more – to bring a story to life. In this experiential workshop designed for educators, participants will get an introduction to the basics of Moment Work and explore the non-text elements of the stage for their full narrative and performative potential.
