Credit Hours: 7

Program Description

Join Kentucky's K-12 educators to share, learn about, and celebrate social studies! At KHEC, participants will enjoy sessions related to each of the four social studies themes – civics, economics, geography, and history – as well as other humanities and interdisciplinary topics. Learn practical classroom teaching strategies, historical content from scholars, get updates on the latest tech tools, and try out interactive activities. Share or learn tips and tricks about integrating the new KAS for Social Studies in your classroom. To round out the experience, virtual exhibitors from education-focused organizations and attractions will be on hand to share resources and opportunities available to Kentucky's teachers and students. Grades K-12. Seven hours of PD credit. Cost: $20 – Member of KHS, KEA, KCSS, KASA, KAGE or KASL or pre-service teacher; $30 – all other registrants (non-member rate).

Objectives of Program

Educator professional learning opportunities at the Kentucky Historical Society strive to make social studies education accessible and relevant by combining our vast historical collections with inquiry-based, participatory learning strategies to help make your students active and informed citizens. We also put you in touch with a network of other teachers, public history professionals and volunteers focused on increasing content knowledge, sharpening skills, sparking creativity and positively impacting students' – and all Kentuckians' – experiences with history.
