Program Description

Our goal is to improve educator preparation by collaborating with pre- and in-service educator preparation faculty, local education agencies, education co-ops, the Kentucky Department of Education, professional development providers, and individuals interested in educator preparation. We are affiliated and supported by the CEEDAR Center at the University of Florida <https://ceedar.education.ufl.edu/>.

Keynote speaker: Dr. Erica D. McCray is an Associate Professor of Special Education and Director of the School of Special Education, School Psychology, & Early Childhood Studies at the University of Florida. Currently, she is a Co-PI for the CEEDAR Center and PI on the MARC Project at UF designed to support including antiracism content across the undergraduate curriculum. Dr. McCray has been recognized on multiple levels for her teaching and research, which emphasize the influence of diversity on educational practice and policy.

Objectives of Program

Focusing on Equity and Diversity within these five high-leverage practice strands:* Collaborate with professionals to increase student success (HLP #1)* Collaborate with families to support student learning and secure needed services. (HLP #3)* Use multiple sources of information to develop a comprehensive understanding of a student's strengths and needs (HLP #4)* Establish a consistent, organized, and respectful learning environment (HLP #7)* Provide positive and constructive feedback to guide students' learning and behavior (HLP's #8 & #22)
